

JUNE-JULY NEWSLETTER 2024

We're so proud to share that Antonis Successfully completed his Special Olympics tournament in Greece! As the youngest member of the Greek Special Olympics Tennis squad, he achieved an exciting milestone. For the first time, he spent five days independently with his fellow team members, an experience he enjoyed tremendously. It was crash course in developing independent skills!

A MEMORABLE TRIP TO THE IMPERIAL WAR MUSEUM

This month, our students embarked on an enlightening and memorable trip to the Imperial War Museum. Our students delved into exhibits covering both World Wars, learning about the key events, personal stories, and the impact of these global conflicts. The museum's extensive collection of artefacts, including uniforms, weapons, and personal letters, brought history to life.

Our students engaged with interactive displays and multimedia presentations, which provided a deeper understanding of the war experiences. The hands-on activities and simulations helped them grasp the complexities of war and its effects on society.

The trip to the Imperial War Museum was an invaluable educational experience!

SACHA'S CULINARY TRIUMPH: FINAL COOKING PROJECT FOR BTEC

We are thrilled to spotlight one of our talented students, Sacha, who recently completed his final cooking project for his BTEC. Sacha's culinary skills and creativity have impressed both his teachers and peers, making his final project a true highlight of the term.

Well Done, Sacha!

ISA SPORT DESIGN COMPETITION

Our students recently participated in the ISA Sport Design Competition, showcasing their creativity and innovation in sports design. This competition provided a platform for our talented students to express their ideas and designs. Take a look at some of the amazing design entries!

EMPATHY DAY WITH EMPATHYLAB

This year, Bloomsbury School proudly took part in Empathy Day, an inspiring initiative organized by EmpathyLab, which was held on June 6th. Empathy Day celebrates and grows empathy's power to create a better world. It shines a light on books' role in raising an empathy-educated generation.

Empathy Day inspires children to learn more about empathy and to put empathy into action! The day was packed with engaging activities, discussions, and interactive sessions designed to boost empathy skills.

We were proud of our students for their enthusiasm and commitment to Empathy Day. Their participation reflected our school's dedication to nurturing well-rounded individuals who were not only academically proficient but also emotionally intelligent and socially responsible.
